AN ALMA MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this Alma citizen? You can verify Alma endorsement. Read this: H. N. Stearns, retired postmaster, 230 Ely St., Alma says: "My back was very lame and troubled me considerably some twenty years ago. My back hurt me so at times that it was hard for me to get out bed. Every time I stooped or lifted anything, a pain came on me and I could hardly go. Black spots came before me and blurred my sight so that everything looked hazy for a few days at a time. Things often seemed to be of many colors and kept spinning around before me. My kidneys were in such a poor condition that my rest was often broken and the secretions were highly colored. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and a few boxes fixed me up in great shape." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—85-2

OBITUARY

Merritt Leonard of Coe was born August 11, 1846, in Green County, Pa., and died January 24, 1921, at his home in Coe, at the age of 74 years and five months. His father died while he was in infancy, leaving the five children of the family with the mother. They were cared for by an uncle, William Leonard, who cared for them as a father. He was a preacher and at the age of eleven Merritt was baptized and continued thereafter steadfast in the Disciples faith, and teachings.

He was married to Williamina Walters in Pennsylvania, bringing her to Michigan, where after a residence of less than a year she died. He was soon after united in marriage to Mrs. Childs, who died a year later, and then he was married to Mrs. Helm, and to this union were born two children, one of whom died in infancy. The other Pearl, resides in Alma. After the death of this wife he was united in marriage to Ella Butler, who with his son, Pearl, are left to mourn the loss.

He was one of the pioneers of Coe township, and did his part in the carving out of fine farms in that section from the wilderness.

The funeral was held at the Coe church and interment made in the Coe cemetery. Among those from away who attended the funeral were, his son, Pearl, of Alma, Mrs. Mary Spitter, and John Spitter of Lansing.

KANTLEEK

It Can't Leak, Because It's Made in One Piece

EVER been scalded by a leaking hot-water bottle? This can't happen with a Kantleek.

Kantleek Hot-Water Bags can't leak. They are "one-piece" water bags—moulded from pure soft rubber into a single piece—no joints or seams. Most hot-water bottles are made in sections and cemented. Cement cracks—bag leaks!

We guarantee a Kantleek for two years—or a new bag free.

Ask to see the Kantleek. You may need it tonight.
